

Carin Barth
LB Capital, Inc.

Carin Barth is co-founder and President of LB Capital Inc., a private equity firm established in 1988, that focuses its investments in the energy and financial services industries. In addition to serving on The Welch Foundation board, she also serves as a director of Enterprise Holdings LLC, the General Partner of Enterprise Products Partners L.P., Black Stone Minerals, L.P. and Group 1 Automotive, Inc. Additionally, Ms. Barth serves as a board member of the Ronald McDonald House of Houston. Ms. Barth has previously served as Chairman of the Investment Advisory Committee for the Endowment at Texas Tech University from 2012 – 2018, a Commissioner of the Texas Department of Public Safety from 2008-2014, a director of the Texas Public Finance Authority from 2006-2008, and as a member of the Texas Tech University System Board of Regents from 1999-2005. Ms. Barth was appointed by President George W. Bush to serve as Chief Financial Officer of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development from 2004-2005.

In recognition of her business and civic involvements, she received the NACD Directorship 100 Award, the University of Alabama - Culverhouse Alumni Outstanding Achievement Award, and an Honorary Doctorate Award from Texas Tech University. Ms. Barth received a B.S. from the University of Alabama, summa cum laude, and an M.B.A. from Vanderbilt University's Owen Graduate School of Management.